

For Plaza Foods BV, located at Oostkanaaldijk 110, Nijmegen, the protection of your personal data is of great importance. Information that you provide to us is carefully treated and processed by us.

This privacy statement applies to all our customers, suppliers, job applicants* and other relations. This statement does not apply to our employees; a separate statement has been drawn up for them, which can be viewed via the HR department. If you still have questions after reading this privacy statement, please contact the board of directors. The contact details can be found at the bottom of this statement.

Why do we process your personal data?

Plaza Foods processes your personal data for a number of reasons:

- to be able to contact and maintain contact with you;
- to facilitate communication and processes;
- to make billing possible;
- to ensure the security and confidentiality of data;

How do we get your personal data?

We receive your personal data directly from you.

How do we protect personal data?

Plaza Foods takes appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized access and unauthorized modification of data.

We do this, among other things, by ensuring that our buildings are not accessible to unauthorized persons and also securing our automation systems against attacks from outside and against data leaks. Agreements have been made within Plaza Foods about which employees may use which data and for what purpose.

What personal data do we process?

Plaza Foods processes various personal data, a distinction is made for each user category to what data is processed. Examples of processed personal data are:

- company name;
- name;
- date of birth;
- correspondence address;
- e-mail address;
- (mobile) telephone and fax number;
- bank account number and payment history;

Are we allowed to process your personal data just like that?

We only process personal data as far as that is permitted. We only process your personal data when:

- you have given permission for this;
- this is necessary to comply with a legal obligation;

How long do we keep your personal data?

We do not store your personal data longer than necessary. We delete most of your personal data when our collaboration ends. We store some administrative data, such as financial records, for a period of 7 years as this is required by law.

With whom do we share your personal data?

Sometimes we pass on your personal data (parts of) to third parties. For example, it may happen that we call in other experts, such as the Tax Authorities or an accountant. We only do this with your permission and we only provide them with the personal data that is necessary to carry out their duties.

What do we do with a data breach?

Examples of a data breach:

- a lost USB stick with personal data
- a stolen laptop, if personal data is stored there
- a data file that has been hacked
- a contamination of a computer with malware

Plaza Foods has a data breach procedure in which this implementation is described and is available on request.

What rights do you have?

Because we process your personal data, you have various rights. For example, you have the right to withdraw your consent when we process your data based on your permission. You also have the right to make certain requests to us. For example, you can request that we provide you with the personal information that we have of you, correct it or ask for it to be deleted. You can also object to the fact that we process your data. If you wish to exercise your rights, please contact the board of directors.
